IN JAIL AT CLEVELAND.

The Three Fur-Brothers and Murderers Arrive in the Forest City and Go to Jail in a Patrol Wagon.

The Grand Jurors of the Police Court, Prisoners in Heavy Irons, Sentenced to Jail at Louisville.

By the Associated Press.

CLEVELAND, O., July 1.—The true nature of the case of the three fur-brothers, who arrived at 6:15 this morning, and are now in the county jail under a strong guard and in heavy chains. A great crowd was at the wharf when they came and cheered when the patrol wagon drove off with the prisoners.

A NEW HAMPSHIRE SCARE.

A Shock of Earthquake Frightens People Generally.

COSMOS, N. H., July 1.—One of the most distinct shocks of earthquake ever experienced in this State fell at 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. There were several distinct vibrations, cracks and windows being rattled and heavy buildings perceptibly jarred. In some instances persons ran from houses through fear, and the shock at the state house was so severe that several legislators and others sought safety from the vibrations in flight. The course of the vibrations seemed to be from the north-west, and reports from surrounding towns show that the shock was felt as strongly within their limits as in this vicinity.

BELLOWS FALLS, Vt., July 1.—Quite a distinct shock of earthquake is reported by many towns in this vicinity at about 5 o'clock last evening. It being most pronounced in Walpole, Saxton's River and Belknap Falls. It lasted thirty-eight seconds. Shakes were rattled and the movement of buildings was perceptible. It was noticeable in all sections, but did no serious damage.

Seconded Hanged.

LOUISVILLE, July 1.—Albert Turner, one of the negro murderers of Jesse Bowman, was hanged in the county jail yard at 6:30 this morning. He was strangled to death, the body being cut down about twenty minutes after the trap was sprung. Only about fifty people were admitted to the yard, but about 2,000 assembled in the vicinity. During the ordeal, which immediately preceded the fall of the trap, Turner gazed at the crowd about him unconcernedly and went to his death without any evident emotion. His dying statement exculpates Patterson, his accomplice, in the murder, who also was sentenced to hang, but whose appeal has not yet been heard by the court.

He said: Now gentlemen and friends: I hope you will all take warning who see me here. I hope no other one of you will ever walk in my footsteps. Free the man Patterson. The man was not with me. That is all I have got to say. I am willing to die now.

Something New in Kansas Catching.

CHICAGO, July 1.—A criminal prosecution of a novel character is about to be begun in Chicago. Adolph D. Parent, cashier of the Hookwater bank, of Montreal, who was the bank's money and safe to Chicago, yesterday afternoon, was arrested by the Chicago Police, and taken to the police station.

Greenhills, of Montreal, and Adolph W. Patterson, manager of the London Guarantee Co., which became security for Parent, had an interview with state's attorney Grinnell, and it was decided to prosecute the defaulter here, as he cannot be taken back to Canada. It appears that there is an Illinois statute rendering absconding criminals of another state or country, liable to be tried and imprisoned here. Parent is under arrest at Buffalo, N. Y., but will be brought here on requisition.

Cholera at Detroit.

SOMEWHAT SENSATIONAL.

Mrs. Frank B. Jones Accused of Being Divorced From Her Husband.

This morning, by her attorney, Mr. A. N. Summers, Mrs. Frank B. Jones, wife of Mr. Amos Whiteley's defaulting book-keeper, who is now serving a ten years sentence in the penitentiary for his pecuniary frauds, filed a petition in the common pleas court for divorce. After having the suit entered on the appearance docket, Attorney Summers withdrew the petition at the request of Mrs. Jones, so that the reporters could not get hold of it.

This afternoon a representative of the Republic endeavored to persuade Solicitor Summers to let him have just one little half-minute peep at the petition, but all his sighs and tears and coaxing were in vain.

Mrs. Jones has been here for several days and it has been suspected that she contemplated instituting proceedings for divorce, but nothing definite was learned until today.

It may be inferred that she was induced to file the petition by the tacit admission of her husband in the last trial of his alleged paramour, Daisy Carroll, but what allegations she makes in the petition will probably not be known until the proceedings become a part of the regular court records.
